PRESIDENT: Any thing further on the Clerk's desk.

CLERK: That's all, Mr. President I have a motion relative to Final Reading.

PRESIDENT: Yes, we are ready for Final Reading. Now we only have one bill on Final Reading. Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: The motion that I have is to suspend the rules, and only take up the two bills, which are 877 and 897, which are two election bills. In the beginning it was my understanding, and I think others understood the same thing, it was necessary or desirable that these bills be passed, and be affected by this primary election. And I'm presuming that they ought to be we should pass them. I don't suggest that you do anything except to read these two bills for that reason. And I move to suspend the rules only for those two bills.

CLERK: Mr. President, the motion is to suspend the rules and consider LB 877 and 897 set for April 2, today.

PRESIDENT: Yes, the Chair was in error by just having one bill, to read today, we have that one to read, but we have those which were left over from last time. Now, the motion is to suspend the rules to take up those two bills on Final Reading LB 897.. What is the other one, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 877.

PRESIDENT: 877? Those two bills. Senator Carpenter..

SENATOR CARPENTER: I could add it to the motion, that then proceed after that to go to Select File, and from Select File to General File.

PRESIDENT: All right, now the motion is to suspend the rules take up these two bills on Final Reading and then immediately go to Select File, that calls for a suspension of the rules, any further discussion? That motion is in order. Are you ready for the question? All those in favor vote aye, those opposed vote no. This requires 30 votes. Clerk will record.

CLERK: 30 ayes, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The rules are suspended, we will take up these two bills on Final Reading and then go to Select File. The Clerk will read LB877. Senator Syas.
